COMPLETE YOUR AGENCY PROFILE

1. There are a few areas you must review and complete to activate your organization's profile. As soon as your organization's profile is activated you can begin to post volunteer opportunities.
 - Impact Statement: A brief statement of the impact your organization makes in this world
 - Upload a profile logo or photo
 - Select a single Primary Cause
2. Once you complete these updates, your agency dashboard will appear. From here, you can complete your organization's profile and manage several areas of VOLY.

The screenshot shows the VOLY Agency Dashboard for 'The Blue Life Agency'. The top navigation bar includes 'FOR NONPROFITS', a welcome message 'Welcome back Palmer Phillips!', and links to 'Agency Dashboard' and 'Logout'. Below the navigation bar are three tabs: 'Causes', 'Opportunities', and 'Agencies'. The main dashboard area is divided into five columns. The first column is a sidebar with the agency name 'Hi, The Blue Life Agency', the role 'Friend', and a 'minimize' button. The second column, titled 'OPPORTUNITIES', shows a calendar icon and buttons for 'Create An Opportunity' and 'View All Opportunities'. The third column, titled 'FANS OF YOUR AGENCY', shows a heart icon and a 'Manage My Agency' button. The fourth column, titled 'Background Checks', shows a checkmark icon and a 'Background Checks' button. The fifth column, titled 'Total Volunteer Hours', shows a '0.0' value and a link to 'Increase this number by posting more opportunities or monitoring those you already have posted.' A red banner at the bottom of the dashboard states: 'You are pending VCNT verification. While you can create opportunities they will not be publicly available for volunteers until you have been approved.'

YOUR AGENCY DASHBOARD

Your agency dashboard provides helpful information for you to manage your agency and stay informed about what's happening with your volunteers.

1. Here you will see the logo or photo you have uploaded for your public profile
 - a. Your agency Name
 - b. Your current membership level with VCNT
 - c. Click minimize to shrink the dashboard to a narrow navigation bar
2. Opportunities allows you to manage your volunteer opportunity postings
 - a. Create a new opportunity
 - b. View all opportunities provides a list of all active, past and draft opportunities
3. Beneath the heart you will see the number of Voly members who have become fans of your agency.
 - a. Fans are people who care about your agency and want to follow your activity.
 - b. Manage my agency allows you to share information that can help us match group and individual volunteers to your specific needs. This is also where you identify agency contact and manage your account.
4. The clock icon provides a reminder of past opportunities, so you can report hours into Voly's tracking system for your volunteer and your agency records.
5. The call out provides a quick glance of the total number of volunteer hours you have reported through Voly along with tips on how to increase you volunteer hours.

6. The middle section of your agency dashboard is a month by month bar graph of volunteer hours. It looks blank right now, however once you have used Voly for a few months, you will find this provides a helpful glance at how volunteer hours are trending for your organization.

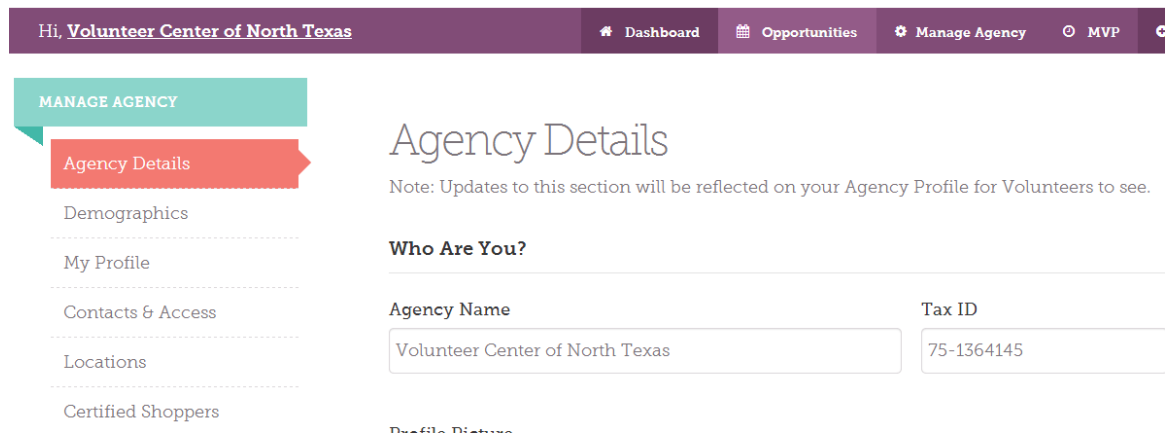

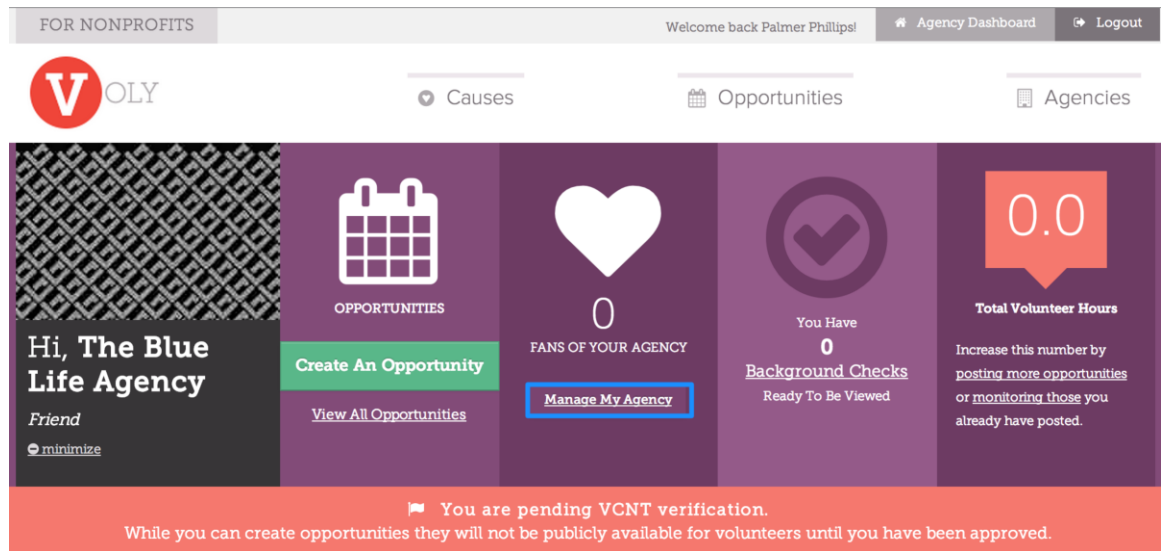

The figure shows a section titled "Upcoming Opportunities". It contains two cards. The first card has a photo of orange flowers, the title "Busy Work", the frequency "Every Day", a large number "2", and the text "VOLUNTEERS STILL NEEDED". Below it is a link "See All 18 Volunteers". The second card has a grey background with a white "V" logo, the title "Meet and Greet Great Dallasites!", the frequency "Every Mon, Tue, Thu, Fri", a large number "0", and the text "VOLUNTEERS STILL NEEDED". Below it is a link "See All 6 Volunteers".

7. The third section of your dashboard gives you a quick glance of your next three volunteer opportunities.
 - a. The photo you have uploaded for this opportunity
 - b. The name of the opportunity
 - c. When this opportunity is scheduled
 - d. How many volunteers you still need
 - e. If there are interested volunteers who are awaiting your review and approval
 - f. How many volunteers have been approved for this opportunity with a link to manage those volunteers

NOTE: Voly will send approved volunteers email reminders 1 week and 1 day prior to your event to encourage their participation.

MANAGE YOUR AGENCY DETAILS

1. Click on the Manage My Agency section in the dashboard

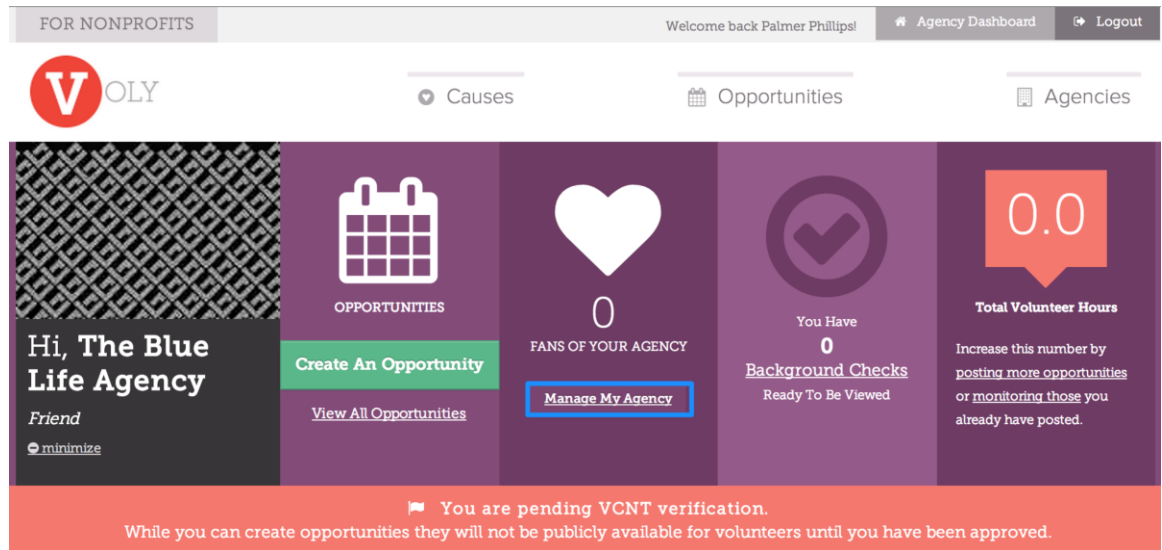

2. From here, you can manage:
 - Agency Details
NOTE: The 'Mission Statement' is intended to be a statement of purpose or short "elevator speech" to inform potential volunteers about your agency and clientele.
 - Who you are
 - Who you serve
 - Optional Links for your website, facebook, twitter and on-line donations
 - Demographics:
NOTE: This data helps us find your agency when corporations or groups are seeking to serve specific causes and demographics.

- Budget & classification
 - Ethnicities served
 - Client and volunteer details
- My Profile
 - Change your personal password
 - Manage the frequency of emails you receive from Voly
- Contacts and Access
 - Identifies which staff members have access to Voly and other VCNT services, including disaster management
 - Establishes and stores agency project leader contact information
 - Allows you to ensure that the right staff members receive information from VCNT on relevant programs
- Locations
 - Allows you to preset the addresses where volunteers are most often needed
- Certified Shoppers
 - This is where you manage your Donated Goods shoppers

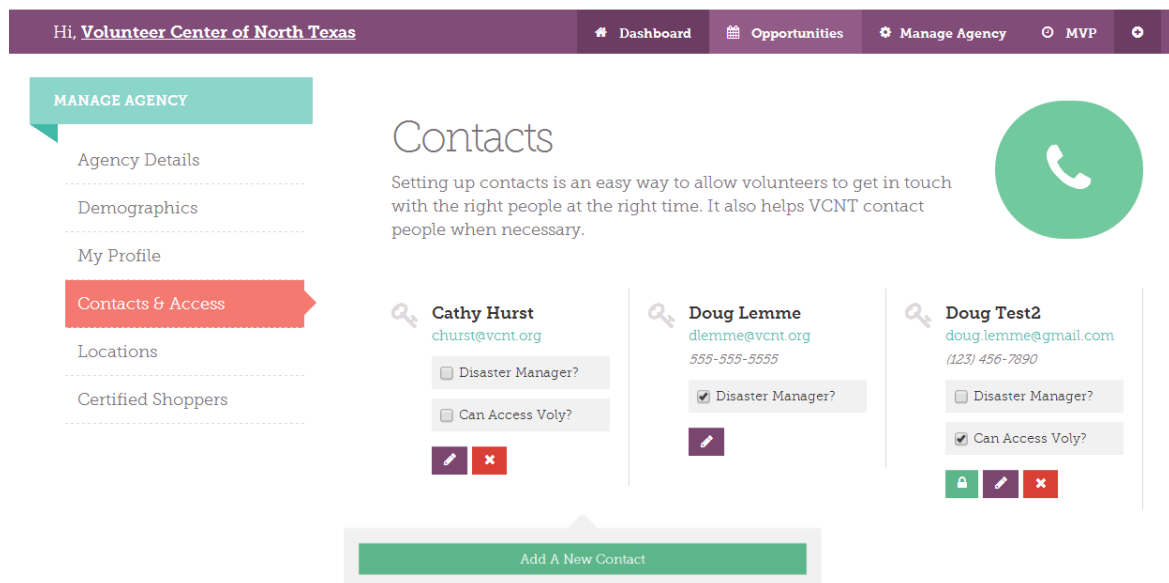

MANAGING YOUR AGENCY CONTACTS

Agency contacts you designate will each be able to create their own login and password to access your agency's profile on Voly. In Voly, these contacts can create volunteer opportunities, manage volunteers, report MVP hours, and track your overall progress as an agency. You may also designate specific Agency Users to be listed on MVP timecards and request or review veriFYI criminal background checks.

1. Click on the Manage My Agency section in the dashboard

2. Click on "Contacts & Access" in the dropdown list

3. Review the list of contacts imported from Volunteer Connection and make necessary edits.
 - Please delete contact that are no longer with your agency
 - Identify which contacts need personal login access to Voly
 - Indicate any contacts that are per-certified as Disaster Managers for the Mass Care Task Force.
4. To add a new contact
 - Click Add A New Contact
 - Enter the name, email address and phone number of the new contact
 - Indicate which programs/services they should be contacted about
 - If you want them to have access to Voly, click the box at the bottom of the form (It will change from red to green)
 - Click on Save Contact
 - NOTE: If you provided access to Voly, they will immediately receive an email inviting them to create their own password

5. Each Voly User will need to follow the link in their emailed invitation, to create their password and activate their access your agency profile on Voly.

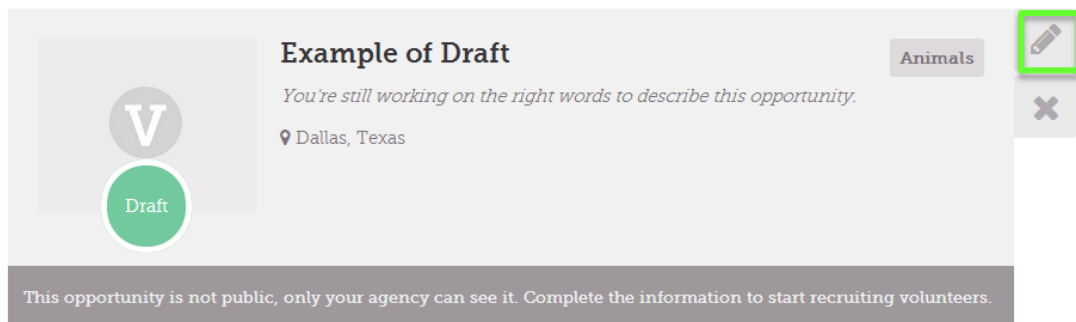

ACTIVATE A DRAFT OPPORTUNITY

All of your agency volunteer opportunities from Volunteer Connection have been imported into Voly as draft opportunities. To activate a draft opportunity you must edit the opportunity and complete the new Voly fields.

1. Log into your nonprofit account on Voly.org.
2. Click “View All Opportunities” in the Dashboard.

3. Find the opportunity you want to edit and click on the edit icon to the right of that opportunity.

4. Review each Step of the volunteer opportunity to complete missing information and to edit and update existing information to provide an accurate, attractive and compelling posting for perspective volunteers.

STEP 1 Name & Contact

Edit your opportunity name and Project Leader, as needed. You can create a new contact here, if needed.

The screenshot shows a web form titled 'Create An Opportunity' with a green background. On the left, there is a sidebar with the text 'Let's Get Started' and 'Give it a name, and tell us who is in charge.' The main form area has two sections. The first section is 'Project Name' with a text input field containing the placeholder text 'Give it a name, make it something that will inspire volunteers.' The second section is 'Who is in charge of this project?' with a contact card for 'Palmer Phillips' (email: palmer+phillips@lifeblu, phone: (214) 123-4567) and a button 'or you can Create A New Contact'. At the bottom of the form is a purple 'Next Step' button.

STEP 2 Date & Location

- When do you need your volunteers?
 - Because Voly manages dates differently than Volunteer Connection, you will need to enter new start date information for imported opportunities.
 - Use the + and - to increase or decrease the hours for this opportunity
 - Please indicate if the opportunity repeats
 - If this opportunity is not date specific, click on 'any day'
- How will hours be assigned?
 - Auto assign, means once you check in volunteers they will all automatically receive the preset number of hours for the event
 - Check in and Out, allows you to easily manage the number of hours worked for each volunteer
- Where will they go to volunteer?
 - Click on a preset location for this volunteer opportunity or
 - Create a new location
- Click Save and Continue

WHEN A VOLUNTEER EXPRESSES INTEREST IN YOUR OPPORTUNITY

1. Voly will send an email with the volunteer's name and email address to the opportunity contact and to the person who posted the opportunity.

Please note: To receive these emails the Opportunity Contact must have activated their Voly account by confirming their email address and establishing a password.

2. Voly will generate an email to the volunteer with the name, address, and phone number of the opportunity contact.
3. The agency follows up with the volunteer
 - We recommend an immediate email to interested volunteers thanking them for their interest and detailing next steps in the process.
 - You can view the volunteer's profile in Voly to learn more about them, their areas of interest and prior volunteer experience.
 - You can request additional information from the volunteers, such as completing a volunteer application for your agency, or doing a criminal background check, if needed.
 - You can set-up an interview with the volunteer, or invite them to an agency orientation meeting
4. When you have sufficient information to make a decision about the volunteer follow the steps in the next section to Manage Interested Volunteers

MANAGE INTERESTED VOLUNTEERS

1. Click “View All Opportunities” in the Dashboard.

The screenshot shows the VOLY dashboard for a nonprofit agency. At the top, there's a header with "FOR NONPROFITS" on the left, a welcome message "Welcome back Palmer Phillips!" in the center, and "Agency Dashboard" and "Logout" on the right. Below the header, there's a navigation bar with the VOLY logo, "Causes", "Opportunities", and "Agencies". The main content area has five cards: 1. A card for "Hi, The Blue Life Agency" with a "minimize" button. 2. A card for "OPPORTUNITIES" with a calendar icon, a "Create An Opportunity" button, and a "View All Opportunities" button (highlighted with a blue box). 3. A card for "FANS OF YOUR AGENCY" with a heart icon, a "0" count, and a "Manage My Agency" button. 4. A card for "Background Checks" with a checkmark icon, a "0" count, and the text "You Have 0 Background Checks Ready To Be Viewed". 5. AFTER THE OPPORTUNITY

1. Voly will send an email to the opportunity contact and to the person who posted the opportunity reminding you to report hours for your volunteers.

TRACK VOLUNTEER HOURS

1. Click “View All Opportunities” in the Dashboard.

The screenshot shows the VOLY dashboard for a nonprofit agency. At the top, there's a navigation bar with "FOR NONPROFITS", a welcome message "Welcome back Palmer Phillips!", and links to "Agency Dashboard" and "Logout". Below this is a header with the VOLY logo and three main navigation tabs: "Causes", "Opportunities", and "Agencies". The main content area is divided into five columns. The first column is a welcome message: "Hi, The Blue Life Agency", "Friend", and a "minimize" button. The second column is titled "OPPORTUNITIES" and features a calendar icon, a "Create An Opportunity" button, and a "View All Opportunities" button (highlighted with a red box). The third column is titled "FANS OF YOUR AGENCY" and shows "0" fans with a "Manage My Agency" button. The fourth column is titled "You Have 0 Background Checks Ready To Be Viewed" and features a checkmark icon. The fifth column is titled "Total Volunteer Hours" and shows "0.0" hours, with a note to increase this number by posting more opportunities or monitoring those already posted. At the bottom, a red banner states: "You are pending VCNT verification. While you can create opportunities they will not be publicly available for volunteers until you have been approved."

2. Click ‘Track Hours’ (clock icon) on the opportunity which requires attention.

The screenshot shows the "Our Opportunities" page. At the top right, there's a green button labeled "Create An Opportunity". Below this, the page title "Our Opportunities" is displayed. The main content area shows a card for an "Amazing Opportunity". The card includes a placeholder image, the title "Amazing Opportunity", the description "It's going to be an amazing time!", and the location "Dallas, TX". To the right of the card, there's a vertical toolbar with four icons: a hand with a 'V' (Volunteer), a clock (Track Hours), a pencil (Edit), and a close button (X). The clock icon is highlighted with a red box. Below the card, there's a summary bar with four sections: "Aug 29, 2013" (with a calendar icon), "5 Hours" (with a clock icon), "1 of 5 Found" (with a hand icon), and "1 NEEDS ATTENTION" (in a red box).

3. On this page, you can:

 - If you selected 'Auto Assign Hours' for this opportunity for this opportunity the volunteer will receive a pre-set number of hours.
 - If you selected 'Check In and Out' for this opportunity you can easily adjust the number of hours actually worked for this volunteer based upon sign in and out sheets. Simply toggle the up and down arrows next to the hours for this volunteer
4. Click on Save Hours to credit each volunteer and your agency with the hours worked for this opportunity. Hours you report will be visible on both your agency profile and on the volunteer's profile page.
5. For ongoing opportunities, you can add additional hours for any of your volunteers each time they volunteer by adding the new hours to those already reported.
6. NOTE: For Ongoing Opportunities
 - We are still working on improving the way Voly handles on-going opportunities, so this may change in the future. Here is how it works now.
 - You posted an opportunity that reoccurs every day
 - One or more volunteers expressed interest in this opportunity
 - It is past your start date, so Voly wants to remind you to report hours any volunteers who may have worked on that day.
 - If a volunteer has not worked, you have nothing to report, and you can ignore this message.

MANAGE DONATED GOODS SHOPPERS

1. Click on the Manage My Agency section in the dashboard

The screenshot shows the VVOLY dashboard for a user named Palmer Phillips. The top navigation bar includes 'FOR NONPROFITS', a welcome message, and links to 'Agency Dashboard' and 'Logout'. Below this is a secondary navigation bar with 'Causes', 'Opportunities', and 'Agencies'. The main content area features a sidebar for 'Hi, The Blue Life Agency' with a 'minimize' button. The central dashboard has five cards: 'OPPORTUNITIES' with a 'Create An Opportunity' button and a 'View All Opportunities' link; 'FANS OF YOUR AGENCY' with a count of 0 and a 'Manage My Agency' button (highlighted with a red box); 'Background Checks' with a count of 0 and a 'Ready To Be Viewed' status; and 'Total Volunteer Hours' with a count of 0.0 and a note to increase the number by posting more opportunities or monitoring those already posted.
